

Name _____

Read the story. Ask yourself what is happening.

Answer each question.

My name is Greg. Tomorrow, Grandma will bring Max to Thanksgiving dinner. I will be happy to see Max. I am going to make a special meal for him. First, he can chew on some bones. Then he will get a bowl of ground turkey. For dessert, Max can have some cheese treats. It will be a real feast!

1. Who is bringing Max to dinner? _____

2. Write a sentence that tells how Greg feels about Max.

3. Who do you think Max is? _____

4. What things in the story tell you about Max?

5. Why do you think Max will enjoy the feast?

Home Activity Your child read a story and drew conclusions from information in the story. Read aloud a portion of a story or article your child has not read. Work together to draw conclusions about a character or event in the text.